The Holy Qur'an is the Word of Allah (S.W.T).

The Holy Qur'an is the most important Book.

We love the Holy Qur'an.

We recite the Holy Qur'an every day.

The Holy Qur'an teaches us about Islam and the five pillars of Islam.

It was revealed to Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W).

It was sent down through angel Jibril.

It was sent down over 13 years in Makkah and 10 years in Madina.

The Holy Qur'an was sent down in the month of Ramadan.

The Holy Qur'an teaches us about the Prophets and tells us about their history.

The first surah is Al-Fatiha.

The last surah is An-Nas.

We have to respect the Holy Qur'an.

You should memorize the Holy Qur'an.

The first word sent down was iqra (recite).

The Holy Qur'an teaches us to respect our family, neighbors and friends.

It teaches us how to do wudu, how to pray, and to be good Muslims, and how to do Hajj.

The Qur'an should be kept somewhere clean.

Nothing should be kept above the Holy Qur'an.

You do wudu before holding the Holy Qur'an.

The Holy Qur'an teaches us to be good Muslims.

We kiss the Holy Qur'an.

There are 114 surahs, 30 juz and 6236 ayahs in the Holy Qur'an.
