

Chapter 4

OUR MADRASA

We go to Madrasa Hidayah.

We pray the Holy Qur'an in the madrasa.

We also memorize surahs in the madrasa.

We memorize Juz Amma.

The little kids recite alif ba.

We see our cousins.

Our mom drops us off to madrasa.

In madrasa we write a book that we call My Book About Islam.

We talk about the new chapters in My Book About Islam.

We pray Alhamdu when we start madrasa.

And at the end of madrasa we pray Salah.

We stay at madrasa for 2 hours from 11a.m to 1p.m on Sundays.

Girls have to wear a scarf and hijab.

Boys wear topis and khanzus.

In madrasa we have break time.

In break time we eat popcorn and chips.

When we enter, we say Assalamu alaikum.

Our grand father is our teacher. Before that, our grand mother was our teacher.

We hug our grand father and grand mother.

When we leave we say Allah Hafiz.

We bring our bags with books.

The big kids memorize in a separate room.

The small kids write and learn on the benches.

We also learn qasidas.
