

Dars (on Page 158):

Allah ﷻ loves His servant who persists in asking from Him

And he (my master) said, may Allah be pleased with him.

Allah ﷻ loves a person who persists in his supplication. He ﷻ is not like us. If we go to someone and say to him: “give me”, and he says to you, “take”. He might give you a second time. The third time, he says, “till when? Go and search for yourself a job.” However, Allah, the Glorified and the Exalted, loves His servant who persists in asking from Him. Every time he implores Him and seeks from Him, He gives him and increases it.