

Third Dars on page 197

The Beloved Prophet ﷺ came to Shaykh ‘Abbas Jahadhmy رَحِمَهُ اللهُ in a dream to advise him not to stay too long at night with al-Habib نفعنا الله so that he could have more time for himself and his family

He (my shaykh) said, may Allah be pleased with him.

Brothers as-Sayyid Muhammad ash-Shatri, ‘Abbas al-Jahadhmy, Muhammad al-Jahadhmy, Saleh ‘Alyan, Mbarak Washo and others رَحِمَهُمُ اللهُ used to sit for very long when they came to visit me at my home. They sat till 11 p.m or 12 p.m. This was heavy on me as I was deprived of time for my studies and worship, and time to sit with the family. So one day, ‘Abbas Jahadhmy came to me at dawn and said to me: “O Habib Ahmad! What did you say to your ancestor the Most Beloved Prophet ﷺ? I saw him yesterday and he said to me: ‘Why do you sit for so long with my son Ahmad Mash-hur?’” So after this dream, they offered Salat al-‘Isha’ and left.